SALOONS CLOSED AFTER MAYOR'S TOLD CONDITIONS

Herzog Carries Out Promise to Do All He Could to Enforce Law—Fail to Make Out Case of Graft.

No evidence of graft or corruption was secured and but one or two instances of minor law violations were cited by the witnesses before the councilman investigating committee which adjourned Friday afternoon.

Any one who knew of graft, corruption or liquor law violation were asked to testify and the names of several who were supposed to know something were handed in. These men were examined and they told of but two or three minor law violations.

The witnesses spoke of having seen evidence of a saloon along "Smoky Row" doing a Sunday business on a certain Sunday in July. According to their testimony, Dr. L. M. Edwards and Joseph Tascher went to Mayor Herzog and told him of these conditions. The mayor promised to investigate and do all that he could do to see that the law was enforced. Later Rev. Mr. Edwards is said to have remarked, in testifying of conditions on the Sunday following this notification, that the city was never tighter than it was this Sunday.

Mrs. deRycke on Stand.
Mrs. Joseph deRycke, along the first witness called Friday afternoon. She admitted the authorship of a letter printed in the Tribune but said that she was merely expressing her opinion and swore that she knew nothing of bribery or corruption on the part of city officials. Telling of her investigation, Mrs. deRycke stated that she started out to see if the saloons were open on a certain Sunday. She only got as far as one saloon, which, she said, to all outward appearances was closed. Two men at this saloon trying to get in were unable to do so. The woman said of having seen a drunker on the street but did not know where they came from. This was at 6 o'clock in the evening and when Atty. Drummond inquired if the men might not be returning from a day's carousing at some nearby city, the witness could not say. She said the men were either Italian or Hungarian.

What is Smoky Row?
Joseph Tascher, who was next called, told of several trips up and down the alley in the rear of "Smoky Row." Tascher remarked of Atty. Drummond that he didn't know Drummond lived out of the state when the latter asked him what this "Smoky Row" was. In regard to liquor law violation Tascher said he saw several men going in and out of the yard in the rear of the Smoky Row saloon on a trip up this alley with Dr. Edwards. He could not furnish the committee with any evidence as to what saloons they were going into. Tascher swore he knew nothing of any graft or corruption on the part of the city officials.

Studley No Candidate.
G. A. Studley denied when called upon the stand that he was in investigating alleged law violations in the city was to further his candidacy for alderman from the fourth ward on the citizens' ticket. Studley said he was not yet a candidate for any office. He did not commit himself as to his future plans.

Mr. Studley admitted the authorship of a letter printed in the Tribune in which he expressed himself that the council was incompetent to conduct such an investigation as they were conducting and asking that the grand jury investigate the city's conditions.

When queried by Atty. Drummond, Studley stated that it was merely his opinion which he had expressed. He admitted that he was in the city when he wrote the letter of the law passed by the state legislature of 1905 imposing upon city councils a duty to investigate charges of graft or corruption lodged against them.

Mr. Studley refused to state, when asked by Atty. Drummond, that his sole object in investigating liquor law conditions in the city was for the purpose of finding evidence with which to prosecute the offenders. He said that his sole object was to get "publicity." Atty. Drummond asked Mr. Studley if he was not in this manner trying to do what he was doing.

Mr. Studley replied that he "guessed he would do his share."

The witness admitted that it was but one of his pastimes to watch the behavior of saloons and told of going down the Smoky Row alley one Sunday morning while en route to Elkhardt. He had just five minutes to spare and "wanted to see what he could find out."

Mr. Studley said he saw nine men passing through a saloon door in this time. Upon his return from Elkhardt about noon he again went down the alley to see what another five minutes would reveal. This time he saw more men going in and out of the alley.

The clerk reported that Truman Adams, for whom a subpoena had been issued, could not be found.

Saw One Saloon Open.
Earl Aldrich was next called. He told of a Sunday morning stroll to the downtown district of the north side with G. A. Studley. He said that they went into the alley in the rear of the two saloons on Main st., between the bridge and Joseph st. The one next the Colbert hardware store was evidently closed, according to the witness. Aldrich testified that while the

ELECTROLYSIS EATS TELEPHONE CABLES

A force of electricians for the Home Telephone Co. are pulling out over 450 feet of lead cable which carries hundreds of wires, from the conduit in the alley between Second and First sts., E. Main st. Nearly every year this has to be done as the cable becomes eaten during the wet months of the year.

The cause of the trouble is due to electrolysis which is nothing more than juice from the street car tracks which makes its way through the conduit to these cables. It is thought that the juice enters the cable from Main st., and works east to the conduit where it passes into the cable and then up the cable to Second st. It is less than a day's work to do when the hot stuff enters the cable but it eats the wires when it leaves.

The cost of this 450 feet of cable is $900.

WILSON IS SURE HE'LL BE SENT BACK TO MEXICO

that the crisis will not be reached in Mexico until the northern rebel armies press close to Mexico City and the federal strongholds, indications were Friday night that an effort would be made by the Washington government to pursue a well defined policy before events reached a critical stage.

The first step in the formulation of a policy will be taken Saturday when Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson will bring to the president and Secy. Bryan first information of the situation. Mr. Bryan Friday announced that there would be no disposition on the part of the administration here to interrogate Ambassador Wilson about the numerous reports alleging activity on his part in connection with the downfall of Madero and the establishment of the Huerta regime. He added that the ambassador had been called merely to throw light on present conditions in the troublesome republic.
